Windows is either a registered trademark or a trademark of Microsoft Corporation in the United States and/or other countries. Mac is a trademark of Apple Inc., registered in the United States and other countries. Linux is the registered trademark of Linus Torvalds in the U.S. and other countries.

Click the three lines to open the Firefox menu on the right-hand side of the browser and choose Settings.

Click on General in the left pane (if not already selected by default) and scroll down to Applications.

Find Portable Document Format (PDF) in the Content Type column.

Click on the arrow in the Action column and select Use Windows default application.

You can now click on the link to the form again and it will download the file for you to open in your default PDF viewer (e.g. Adobe Reader).
