

UNIVERSITY OBJECTIVES

CSU's aspirations are elaborated through these enduring and long term objectives for each of our key stakeholders.

Our communities

Regional communities:

- graduates who help communities to thrive and prosper economically, socially and environmentally
- national research leadership in areas relevant to them
- improved educational outcomes and lives for Indigenous, regional, rural and remote Australians.

Professional and academic communities:

- a globally networked university, dedicated to scholarship, research and practice and that helps to shape the future of the professions.

Our students

- flexible access to professional education regardless of background or location
- a qualification and high level of employability for a new career, career advancement or change
- the knowledge, skills, attitudes, habits and professional networks for a successful life and career
- the ability to operate across cultures, spaces and places and with a variety of professions
- critical thinking and ability to influence the world for the better
- an engaging, responsive experience that creates a life-long sense of connection and belonging to our community.

Ourselves

- to extend our 'One University' philosophy into a truly connected community
- to be recognised as the national leader, and a significant international player, in practice-based and distance education
- to be recognised internationally in our areas of research strength
- to learn from and improve our practice
- to value our staff for their contributions to the University and ensure they have opportunities to grow, develop and innovate.
