

Sustainable Rivers Forum 2026

Hosted by Charles Sturt University's Gulbali Institute and CSIRO in partnership with the Next Generation Water Management and Engineering Research Hub.

Save the date!

Date: Thursday, 19 February 2026

Location: CD Blake Auditorium and Gums Café,
Albury-Wodonga Campus, Charles Sturt
University

The Sustainable Rivers Forum 2026 focuses on the latest advancements and pressing issues in water management, aquatic ecology, engineering and sustainable development.

Key themes:

- Environmental water
- Integrated freshwater ecosystem ecology
- Priority issues in sustainable fisheries
- Advances in international water research
- First Nations project case studies
- Innovation and technology in water research

Free of charge but only 150 tickets available.

Detailed program to be announced.

Speaker/attendee inquiries: gulbali@csu.edu.au

shorturl.at/jsypm