COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Registration with the Psychology Board of Australia

On acceptance into either course, candidates who do not hold registration as a psychologist must apply to the Psychology Board of Australia (PsyBA) for provisional registration. Provisional registration is usually granted for one calendar year and must be maintained throughout your enrolment in the course.
<https://www.psychologyboard.gov.au/Registration/Provisional.aspx>

All successful candidates must at least hold provisional registration. Where the PsyBA refuses an application for provisional registration, or where registration is subsequently cancelled during the program, your enrolment will be withdrawn.

- ☐ I understand the criteria for provisional registration and acknowledge and accept that, if offered a place in this course, I will be required to apply for and maintain provisional registration with AHPRA for the duration of the degree at my own expense.
- OR
- ☐ As a registered psychologist, I have provided evidence of my AHPRA registration and understand that I need to maintain registration for the duration of the degree, at my own expense.

Compulsory Attendance

There are no academic requirements to attend a Charles Sturt campus at any stage, for either program.

Some subjects may have a requirement to attend compulsory online intensives in full, which are typically held in early February. Students who are not able to attend these intensive schools will not be able to complete these subjects, and thus will not be able to undertake the program. More information regarding the dates on the intensives will be supplied to successful candidates.

- ☐ I understand and accept that, if offered a place in the course, I will be required to attend online intensives

Workplace Learning

The Master of Clinical Psychology and Master of Professional Psychology require students to complete the requisite placement hours under the supervision of a board approved psychologist.

Due to the diverse geographical locations of our students, and in accordance with established Charles Sturt guidelines, students are responsible for organising their placement. All costs associated with the placement experience are borne by the student, if applicable. This includes where completion of placement requires travel or temporary relocation, or where payment for external supervision is the only option available in a chosen setting.

- ☐ I understand and accept that, if offered a place in the course, I will be responsible for organising my own practical experience and related supervision (where relevant, at my own expense).

REFERENCES

Applicants are required to arrange references from a minimum of three professional or academic referees, to be submitted online. <https://www.psychologyreference.com.au>

It is the applicant's responsibility to ensure that references are lodged and are made available to Charles Sturt by the UAC closing date. References cannot be submitted in any other format and applications without references by the closing date will not be considered.

- ☐ I understand and accept that, I will be responsible for the provision of three references via the Reference portal by the closing date for applications, and that references cannot be accepted in any other format.

TIME COMMITMENT

It is critical that prospective students carefully consider the commitment required to undertake the Master of Clinical Psychology and Master of Professional Psychology through distance education.

Each coursework subject requires a minimum 150 hours of study, or about 10 hours per week for one semester. All subjects have assessment components with fixed due dates for submission, and extensions are not granted based on work pressure or routine family commitments. In our experience, students who attempt to study while working significant hours per week invariably struggle, often failing subjects or withdraw from the program.

- ☐ I understand that full-time enrolment requires a commitment of approximately 40 hours per week, and that part-time enrolment requires approximately 20 hours per week. I affirm that I will adjust any employment or personal commitments to ensure that I allocate the requisite time commitment to my studies.

SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATES: ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTATION

If you are undertaking a course with clinical or fieldwork placements you must demonstrate compliance with the following checks and requirements. It is your responsibility to ensure that the correct documentation is obtained prior to commencing clinical/fieldwork placements.

- National Police Check - through your State or Territory Police Service or the Australian Federal Police.
- Working With Children Check – through the Office of the Children's Guardian.
- NDIS Worker Screening - for some clinical/fieldwork placements settings
- Immunisation and vaccination requirements - for some clinical/fieldwork placements settings

- ☐ I acknowledge and accept that, if accepted into the program, and when requested to do so, I am expected to provide the above at my own expense. I also recognise that I am not required to complete these checks prior to admission

ASSESSING ACADEMIC ELIGIBILITY

The Master of Clinical Psychology and Master of Professional Psychology each require a four-year APAC-accredited qualification in psychology (or equivalent) to have been completed within the previous ten (10) years<sup>a</sup> with a Weighted Average Mark (WAM) of 75% or higher<sup>b</sup> for the 4th-year of study.

To ensure an accurate assessment, we require raw marks (% or mark out of 100) and subject weighting for each 4th year. This includes candidates with an incomplete program at the time of application. Please indicate how you will provide this information by selecting an option from the drop-down menu below.

How will you upload your raw marks to UAC?

Selecting "I cannot provide raw marks" or failing to provide raw marks through one of the above options by the application closing date will result in Charles Sturt calculating an indicative WAM based on the lowest mark within the grade banding, according to Charles Sturt grading conventions.

Some institutions may wish to send raw marks directly to Charles Sturt. In this instance, candidates should request their institution email the information to: FOBJBS-Course-admin@csu.edu.au Please request your institution include your full name, date of birth, and email address as provided in your UAC application. Note: Charles Sturt is unable to contact your institution for raw marks.

<sup>a</sup> Candidates who completed their 4th year degree more than ten years ago may qualify for a waiver of the ten-year rule if they are currently registered and practicing psychologists and can show compliance with the Psychology Board of Australia (PsyBA) continuing professional development requirements. Evidence of current registration is required with your supporting documents

<sup>b</sup> Applicants who have achieved a WAM lower than the stated minimum requirement will be excluded from the applicant pool.

☐ I confirm that I have read and understand all of the information above.

When is the last date I can submit references	References must be submitted by the closing date for applications to ensure your application is complete and can be assessed. It is strongly recommended that you request your referees complete the online reference as soon as possible. Credit / RPL
Can I get credit / RPL	Credit allocation in accredited postgraduate psychology programs is strictly governed by the Australian Psychological Accreditation Council (APAC). Individuals may be eligible to apply for academic credit if they have completed equivalent coursework subjects in an APAC-accredited postgraduate qualification in another field of professional psychology within the past ten (10) years. Credit for prior learning will only be considered for equivalent subjects and will be assessed upon acceptance into the program; credit evaluations cannot be conducted before the official offer stage. Credit will not be considered for work experience, research completed in non APAC accredited degrees (including PhD's), or coursework completed in an undergraduates of 4th year psychology course.
If I have completed an APAC-accredited fifth year, will I get full credit in the Master of Clinical Psychology? And, can I enter directly into the second year of the Master of Clinical Psychology?	Individual subjects completed within an APAC-accredited postgraduate (fifth/sixth) year professional psychology degree will be need to be assessed for equivalency to those offered in the Charles Sturt Master of Clinical Psychology for the year of commencement. Applicants seeking credit for these placements must provide comprehensive records for review on acceptance of an offer of admission.

Are classes on campus or online?	All classes for this program are delivered online, providing you with the flexibility to study at a time of your convenience without the need for in-person attendance. The only exception to this is the placement component, which requires you to attend in person.
Intensive Schools	Some units in this course require mandatory online intensive schools as part of the program. These intensive sessions are designed to provide you with in-depth learning experiences and opportunities for interaction with instructors and peers. Further details about these mandatory online intensive schools, including scheduling and specific requirements, will be provided to successful candidates once offers have been made and accepted.
Do I have to arrange my own placements?	Yes
Will I get paid while on placement?	Payment for placements is unlikely.
Do you manage the internship or registrar program?	We do not manage the internship year (+1) for Master of Professional Psychology graduates. We also do not manage the registrar program for Clinical Psychology graduates. You will need to discuss these requirements directly with AHPRA.
GENERAL
When do I apply to AHPRA? (if applicable)	All students are required to be provisionally or generally registered as a psychologist with the Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (AHPRA) on commencement and for the duration of the course. Those without provisional or full registration at the time of accepting an offer, need to apply for provisional registration before you start your coursework. Failure to secure / hold registration may see your enrolment with Charles Sturt cancelled. In line with AHPRA requirements, Charles Sturt will send a list containing the names of all students commencing or continuing in a course requiring registration directly to AHPRA at the beginning of each calendar year. You will, therefore, not require an individual letter confirming enrolment.
Can I still manage some casual or part time work while studying?	From past experience, we know that balancing the demands of postgraduate psychology study alongside work commitments can be challenging. We strongly encourage you to carefully consider your time and workload before deciding whether to study part-time or full-time. It is important to note that your choice of study load—whether part-time or full-time—will not impact your eligibility for an interview or the selection process for offers. Both options are available and you will be assessed based on your qualifications and application materials, not your chosen study load.
Can I go on holiday during my studies?	While the coursework subjects associated with the Masters level postgraduate programs run over the academic semester schedule, placements and the research components may run across the calendar year.

	We encourage students to have breaks during their studies, but these need to fit within the demands of all aspects of the program they are enrolled in.
Can I transfer from the Master of Professional Psychology to the Master of Clinical Psychology?	No, you cannot.  Admission to the Charles Sturt Master of Clinical Psychology is via UAC application only.
I already hold full registration with AHPRA, do I need to complete placements?	Yes. As per APAC accreditation policies, prior experience as a practitioner cannot be used to obtain credit toward a postgraduate degree or for exemption of any key component. This policy ensures that all candidates meet the standardised academic and practical training requirements set by APAC.
If I am accepted, how do I provide AHPRA with evidence that I am enrolled in a course in order to apply for provisional registration?	After you enrol in the course, submit your application for provisional registration to AHPRA, listing Charles Sturt as your principal place of practice.  Charles Sturt will notify AHPRA of students enrolled on the programs on your behalf. This typically takes place at the beginning of the academic year.  Please note that AHPRA may experience delays in the busier periods.
