

Thesis Embargo / Restricted Version Request Form

To enable this electronic form, you must first SAVE it then REOPEN as a PDF file (it will not function properly when used in a browser window).

As per Charles Sturt University's Higher Degree by Research Policy (Clause 135) and the Higher Degree by Research Procedure (Clauses 104-106), where appropriate, candidates can request their thesis be either embargoed or restricted so that it is not publicly accessible via the Charles Sturt University Institutional Repository (CRO).

Further to the above, candidates presenting a thesis by publication must obtain permission from the publishers to make any non-open access articles within their thesis open access. If this permission is not granted a request must be lodged to make the complete version of the final thesis not publicly accessible.
