How Dynamic?

Something to think about...

Each week I'll be adding a new podcast to the channel for you - this might include:

- An interview with industry professionals
- My own takeaways on one of the key readings
- Sharing my thoughts on preparing for an upcoming assessment
- Current affairs connected to our learning
- A brief 'concept lecture' to help break down learning module content

.... and more?

Tips n Tricks

..you will be invoiced shortly for these at the standard rate.

- Pacing! (listen to your recorded voice to get an appreciation of just how fast you're speaking)
- Authenticity > production   (every time)
- Don't get lost in transitions (see above)
- RSS - figure out what is ok for students to subscribe to and organise your recordings appropriately
- Include your podcast details as part of your info for students (e.g. subject welcome / getting started)
