

Charles Sturt
University

Three Rivers
Department of Rural Health

2025

Professional Development

February	06 Online Working with Assessment of Physiotherapy Practice (APP) tool	06 Online Managing Wellbeing and Recognising Vicarious Trauma	21 Albury Complex home modifications, occupational therapy
March	06 Online Managing the marginally performing physiotherapy student	20 Deniliquin Clinical supervision: Unlocking potential in placements	24 Dubbo Building Mental Fitness for Tomorrow	27 Parkes Thrive 2025
April	02 Wagga Wagga Simulated interprofessional education (Sim-IPE)	03 Wagga Wagga Tough talks, boundaries and self-care	10 Deniliquin Fundamentals of wound management
May	05 Online Building Mental Fitness for Tomorrow	15 Online Working with physiotherapy students to overcome challenges	21 Deniliquin Tough talks, boundaries and self-care	28 Narrandera Enhancing the student-supervisor partnership
June	02 Online Preparing for placements with 3rd and 4th year OT students	04 Griffith Tough talks, boundaries and self-care	24 Deniliquin Navigating Changed Behaviour in People Living with Dementia	25 Deniliquin Recognising and Acting on Pain
July	03 Dubbo Enhancing the student-supervisor partnership	28 Online Working with first-year OT students

threeivers.csu.edu.au/pd

@ThreeRiversDRH

Charles Sturt University Three Rivers Department of Rural Health is funded under the Australian Government's Rural Health Multidisciplinary Training Program. Charles Sturt University is an Australian University, TEQSA Provider Identification: PRV12018. CRICOS Provider: 00005F.