CFO Advisory (CFOA) are trusted advisors to Chief Financial Officers and their teams. We work with our clients to develop and implement practical solutions to enable effective financial management, budgeting practices and reporting through:

- Enhancing process effectiveness
- Interpreting international and national standards
- Improving finance functions
- Integrated business reporting
- Automation and digital reporting

Further information: Our people - our team prioritises inclusion, diversity and support to our staff. Working in a team on every job provides you with the opportunity to learn from experts who encourage curiosity and a 'have a go' approach.

Our clients - we work with a broad range of diverse clients which including multi-national and national companies and government at all levels.

Flexible work - you can choose to work full-time, part-time, or even casually as you finish off your studies.

So why CFOA?

Our team is diverse and prioritises our peoples' experience and development. You will be working with a growing, experienced and professional team.

You will work with and shadow Partners and Directors - who have been CFOs themselves - who can share their knowledge and support the development of innovation you can bring to the team.

During your placement you will contribute to active engagements that may vary in size, duration and services being offered. This may include working across our range of clients in both government and non-government and collaborating with other KPMG teams across different service areas.
