

Shared Placement Model: Key stakeholder roles

A shared placement can be defined as a placement where there can be more than one supervisor to share the responsibility of supervising a student. It may also be called multiple mentoring or a collaborative placement.

