

FAMILY ASSIST

Building mental fitness. Together.

Family Assist offers members of your immediate family to speak with a Converge International counsellor for support across a range of areas

CONVERGE INTERNATIONAL

The Converge International Employee Assistance Program (EAP) is also there to support members of your immediate family, offering advice across personal and lifestyle issues.

OUR SERVICES

Family Assist is provided independently from your organisation.

Our consultants focus on providing you with tips, skills and strategies so that you can address your concerns and get back to being successful, productive, happy and healthy in life and at work.

- Build stronger, more supportive relationships to positively and proactively address disagreements before they lead to open conflict
- Discover tips and strategies to better balance the demands of work and life
- Access support and advice around parenting and managing the needs of children, teenagers and young adults

OUR COUNSELLORS

Focus on working with your immediate family by providing access to a Converge International counsellor for support across a range of areas including:

- Managing family relationships
- Resolving conflicts
- Balancing work and life pressures
- Challenges with parenting and more

EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM
