

6 December 2023

Professor Anthony Maher

I am pleased to advise that following his significant contributions to the Australian Centre for Christianity and Culture, Prof. Anthony Maher will take up a Distinguished Visiting Fellowship at Oxford University in 2024, to complete his current research trilogy in cultural anthropology and public theology. We are also pleased to announce that Prof. Maher has accepted the role of Adjunct Professor and a member of the CSU Yindymarra-Nguluway Advisory Group. The University looks forward to working with Professor Maher on the Yindymarra-Nguluway initiative. The University acknowledges the contribution Professor Maher has made to Charles Sturt University and wishes him every success with the Visiting Fellowship to Oxford University and the launch of his upcoming book, 'Refounding the Church: A Revolution in Lay Spirituality.'

Professor Mark Evans

Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research)