

Accessibility and Inclusion Support provides assistance to students with a disability or condition who requires reasonable study adjustments and support.

If you wish to access Accessibility and Inclusion Support, please complete the information below and return the form to access@csu.edu.au. You are also required to provide current documentation about:

- the severity and duration of your disability;
- its impact on your studies; and
- any recommended adjustment strategies

Download our Health Practitioner Report for your health practitioner to complete about your disability and/or condition. The service will also accept other documentation on a letterhead from your treating practitioner if the information provided covers with the information requested in the template.

My details

Pronoun

Given Name

Family Name

Student ID

Preferred B/H No.

Email

Study Mode

Campus

Course

Are you an Australian/New Zealand citizen or permanent resident?

Yes

No

Are you Aboriginal or Torres Straight Islander?

--

Do you have or are you in the process of developing a NDIS plan?

Yes

No

If you provide ongoing personal care and support to a person with a diagnosed condition or who is aged and frail, please describe your caring responsibilities below and provide a completed Carer Health Practitioner Report

--

How did you find out about our service?

Disability Details

Please describe your disability/medical condition

--

Indicate how your disability/medical condition may impact on your study and what adjustments you are requesting in the following areas

Lectures/tutorials/practical classes

Assessment tasks

Intensive schools

Professional placement

Examinations

Physical access

Format of study materials

Library use

Study skills

Other

Privacy Statement

Personal or health information provided to Accessibility and Inclusion Support is protected by the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (NSW).

When consulting with Accessibility and Inclusion Support, I acknowledge:

- that information is accurate and given voluntarily
- that information is collected by Accessibility and Inclusion Support for the purpose of supporting me in my studies and can be disclosed to relevant Charles Sturt staff
- that my personal details may be recorded in a file
- that information will be destroyed in accordance with the General Disposal Authorities as set by State Records NSW
- that information will not be supplied to any person or organisation outside the Charles Sturt for any purpose unless authorised by me except where Charles Sturt may be legally required to do so
- that if I am co-enrolled with a Charles Sturt partner educational institution, I give permission for my DLO to share information with relevant staff at both institutions

I understand that I can request Accessibility and Inclusion Support to allow me to view my file and request, in writing, that information be updated if it is incorrect. If I am dissatisfied with the way Accessibility and Inclusion Support has handled my personal information I may apply to have the matter reviewed by lodging a formal application with the Charles Sturt Ombudsman.

Student signature (required):

Date: