University

Living
on campus

Welcome to a university experience like no other

Have you ever met a group of people you instantly connected with? They just get you. And you get them.

Well, that's exactly what happens when you live on campus at Charles Sturt University. You make lifelong friends. You become part of a diverse, global community. Part of a family. And you'll make lasting memories.

We are Australia's largest regional university. With accommodation in six awesome locations across the diverse state of New South Wales, our campuses offer the laidback lifestyle of country living combined with urban convenience.

Living on campus, you're at the very heart of things. Support services, sports clubs and an epic social calendar... everything is right on your doorstep.

Everything's close at hand. Your friends live next door. You're right by the beach, bush or mountains. You're gonna have an awesome time.

Where we live

At Charles Sturt University we're geographically gifted. We have six campuses that all offer a warm welcome; comfortable, safe and secure accommodation; and a stress-free living experience.

Albury-Wodonga

Live on one of Australia's greenest campuses.

Bathurst

Where history meets innovation.

Dubbo

Live on the edge of incredible wilderness.

Campus Tours

Come and check us out.

You can book a campus tour any working day of the year.

One of our current students will take you behind the scenes and give you a personalised tour of our accommodation, facilities and everything else Charles Sturt offers.

Orange

Live under a volcano in the heart of wine country.

Port Macquarie

Study and surf in the sunshine.

Wagga Wagga

New South Wales' biggest regional inland city.

Accommodation options

Everyone's different, and we want to make sure your on-campus experience suits you. That's why we offer a variety of accommodation and catering options.

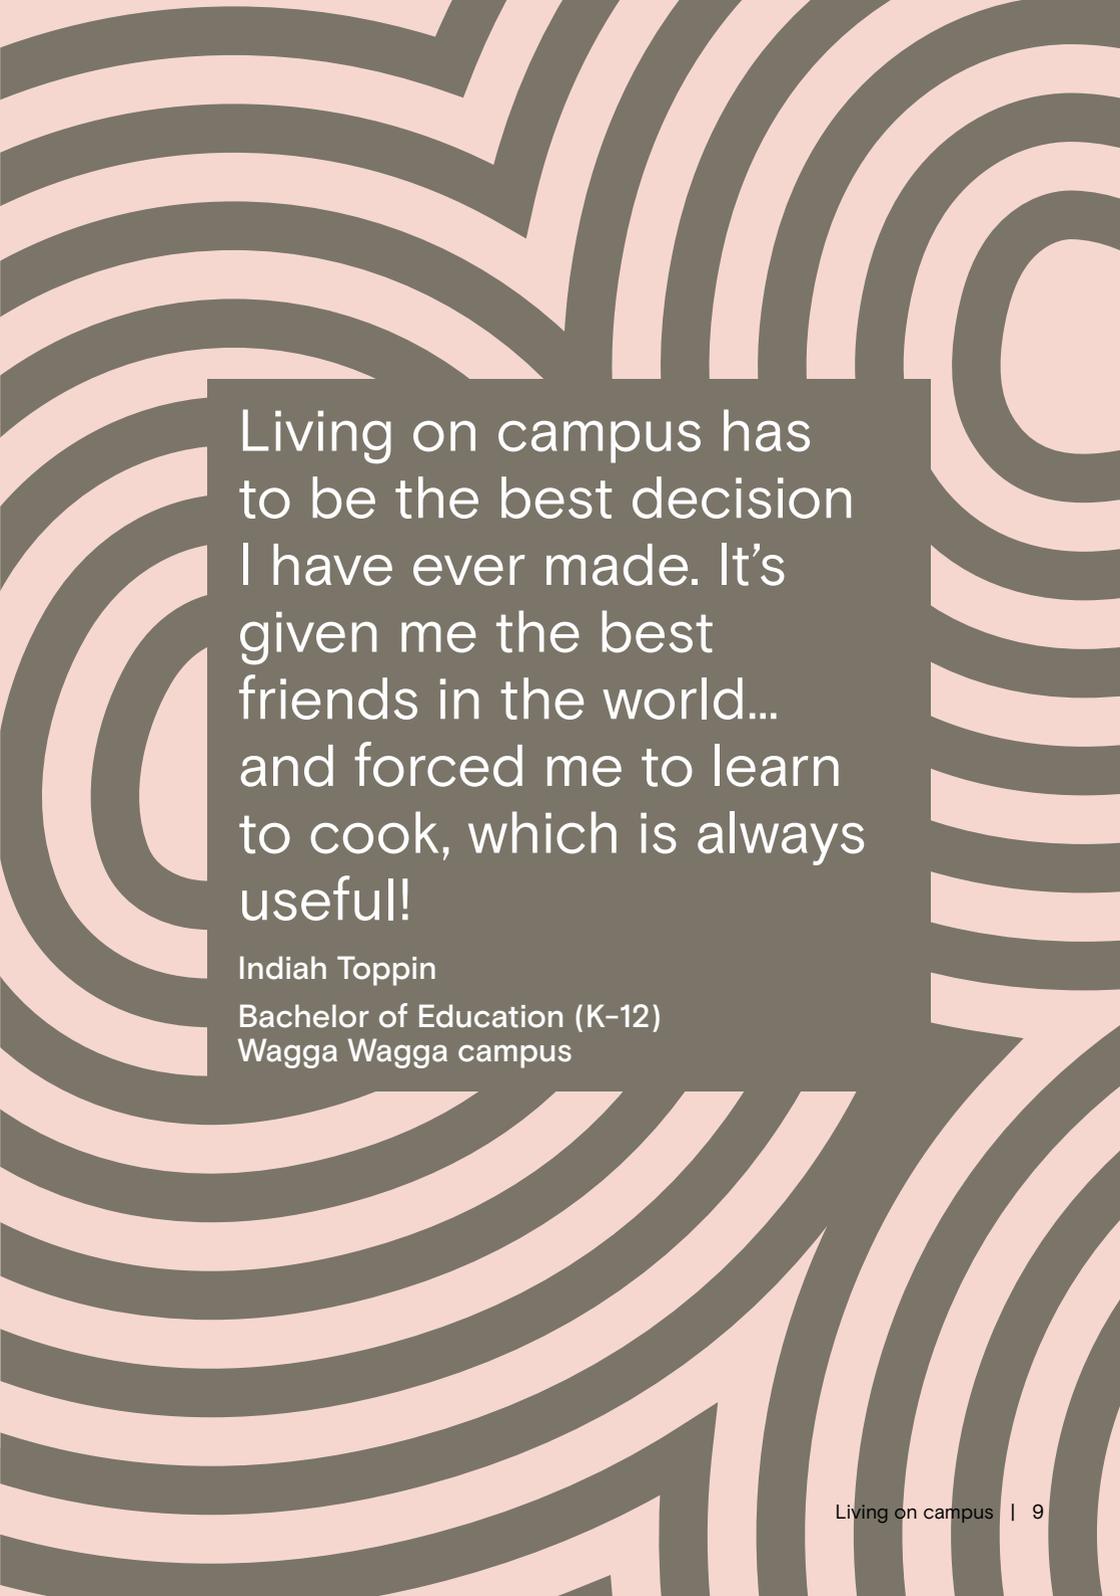

You can live on campus for both study sessions and session breaks, or choose a room that you vacate during the holidays. All our campuses have accessible accommodation options for people with disability.

When it comes to food, you can self cater or choose from a variety of eating options.

Our flexi food options allow you to fit your dining needs around your lifestyle. You can choose a plan that includes some of your meals or all of them. Whatever your needs, we've got a plan to suit you.

We provide a variety of fresh, healthy meals to keep you going – and we can also look after your special dietary needs.

Living on campus has to be the best decision
I have ever made. It's given me the best friends in the world...
and forced me to learn to cook, which is always useful!

Traditional residences

Available on our Bathurst, Orange and Wagga Wagga campuses, our traditional halls of residence offer a classic and cosy university experience.

Cottages

Our cottages offer a real sense of 'share house' living. Rooms are arranged around shared kitchen facilities, bathrooms and lounge.

Campus life

Living on campus at Charles Sturt, you get a degree... and so much more.

You can get involved with study groups or sports teams. How about joining a film or dance club? Volunteer and raise money for local causes, help run LGBTIQ+ support groups or enhance your leadership skills with our STRIVE program.

Our Residence LIFE team are dedicated to making sure your on-campus experience is everything you hope it will be. They're ready to support you whenever you need it.

'LIFE' stands for Leadership, Independence, Friendship and Engagement – and the team will help you develop in all these areas.

Residence LIFE organises loads of events throughout the year where you can have fun and meet new people – everything from formal balls and music gigs to movie nights and barbecues.

There's always something happening on campus, from social get-togethers to study sessions.

You'll have the time of your life.
