Message from the General Manager

The year has passed and on reflection I would rank it highly as one of the most professional to date.

Our management team has evolved, tackling the challenges put before them they have become better leaders.

Our employees across regional New South Wales have fully embraced; learning, safety awareness and quality assurance initiatives.

Most importantly we have showcased to our clients what we really can do, and positive feedback is at an all time high.

2013 is around the corner and again will prove to be challenging. I sincerely believe if we all pull together we will become even greater. Thank you for all your efforts and have a safe and joyous new year.

CSCS News

For the months of October, November and December CSCS staff have been working very hard, with end of year in our sights the staff have been working extremely hard to ensure the standard of the University, at each Campus, is up to standard and ready for the new year. A big pat on the back to all the Charles Sturt Campus Services cleaners for their great work, It defiantly hasn't gone unnoticed!

October 23rd, 24th and 25th Service Coordinators Damien Blattman, Christopher Faucett and Training Coordinator Graham Biddle visited the National Cleaning Expo 2012 in Sydney throughout the three days the coordinators were very impressed and had a lot to report to the General Manager.

The 23rd of November a large number of Charles Sturt Campus Services Staff travelled to the Wagga Wagga Campus for the CSU Training Graduation. It was great to see the staff be rewarded for their hard efforts on completing the Asset Maintenance III course.

Have a Happy and Safe Holiday!

CHECK OUT ALL THESE COMPLIMENTS!

Hello it's Pauline from the library

I had been watching that fantastic 'little' Sharon Ryan doing the outside library windows. Fair dinkum I don't know how she did them, she just looked so tiny out there! She sure is a fantastic worker. all the best

Pauline

Good afternoon Alistair,

I would like to let you know that the Library staff has been impressed with Sandra Ryan's work in the library.

This week, the Library had a visit from some important guests, and they were particularly pleased with the way their donated collection was so clean and tidy.

I just felt that you should be aware that Sandra is valued by the staff, and that her extra work is noticed.

Damien

Could you please pass on our Appreciation of the services that your staff member Sandy, who looks after the Learning Commons provides.

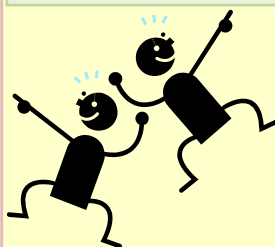

Sandy is always pleasant and so thorough in her work and never complains but takes pride in the way in which she goes about her duties.

All of the Cashiers are appreciative of this type of service.

Leonie was also focused on what her duties were and very pleasant as well whilst Sandy was on holidays.

Regards

Lorraine

Hi Shane

Just a quick email to let you know I have noticed an improvement in the cleanliness of the GB building. It looks like the standards have been raised over the last couple of months. Today I noticed one of your cleaners wiping down the walls and the rails of the stairwell. It is looking great and it makes the building a nicer place to work. Well done. Keep up the good work!

Regards

Julie

Martin,

Just a quick note to say how pleased we are with the cleaning done by Pat and Jenny in both the cellar door and the production winery. The place is kept spotless, and they pay very close attention to detail in all their cleaning, not to mention providing the public spaces (and even occasionally the winery lunchroom!) with flowers from their own gardens. It makes for a very welcoming environment when people visit the cellar door, and gives an excellent first impression of the university.

You can read all the preceding bit out at your weekly meeting if you like - now for the meat in the sandwich! There are rumours around that the cleaning staff may be rotated around at the end of this month - we would be really sorry to lose Pat and Jenny.

Cheers,
Andrew Drumm
