

Work Placement Position

FAQ+ Support

Knowledge Factory for Regional, Rural & Remote Communities

FAQ Support focuses on how regional communities and their businesses, non-profit organisations need to interact to remain sustainable against the disruptive forces. These forces include effects of globalisation, technology, social media, flexible working environments and government intervention. All this while continuing to be attractive to old and new residents in the face of droughts and flooding rains.

To find out more, visit faqsupport.com.au

Subject:	Session 1 (30): BUS220 (70hrs), BUS370 (120hrs) Session 2 (60): BUS110 (35hrs), BUS370 Session 3 (90): BUS110, BUS220
Specialisation:	Marketing
Location:	Bathurst
Availability:	Multiple positions
Further Information:	As a work placement student with FAQ Support you will have a chance to combine academic learning with hands-on practical experience. We will work with you to develop projects which will give you an opportunity to hone your skills and be able to provide real value to Australia's regional communities. Discover new ways to address regional, rural and remote community challenges by engaging communities, businesses and non-profit organisations to work together. It can involve, bridging the gaps between the rhetoric and the reality of managing a community to prosperity. You could be working on a range of projects involving the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Regional, rural and remote community development.• Website development and management (using WordPress).• Social media marketing and management.• Webinar and video production.• Developing technology tools and processes.• Knowledge management.• Market research.
How to Apply:	Email Cover Letter, Résumé, Academic Transcript and Authority to Disclose Information to Peter Sergeant (psergeant@faqsupport.com.au) or call 0458 200 255 for further information.
Closing Date:	Closing Date
