

Graham Centre Stubble Research Forum
Wednesday 13 February, 2013

Convention Centre, Charles Sturt University

8.30-8.45am	Welcome coffee
8.45-9.15am	Keynote Address: Influence of nutrient availability on changes in stable soil organic matter levels following crop stubble retention Dr Clive Kirkby, CSIRO and Graham Centre
9.15-9.45am	Keynote Address: Storing Soil Carbon – is it possible? Dr Mark Conyers and Dr Susan Orgill, NSW DPI and Graham Centre
9.45- 10.15am	Keynote Address: GPS guidance inter-row sowing Andrew Whitlock, Precision Agriculture
10.15-10.30am	Morning Tea
10.30-11.30am	Workshop 1: Practical soil sampling Dr Harm van Rees, Cropfacts and Dr Iain Hume, NSW DPI and Graham Centre
11.30-12.30pm	Workshop 2: Analysis of soils for Carbon – techniques and the future Dr Jeff Baldock and Dr Mark Farrell, CSIRO
12.30-1pm	Forum wrap up and discussion Professor Deirdre Lemerle, Director Graham Centre
1-2pm	Lunch