

Graham Centre Sheep Forum – 8 July 2016

CSU Convention Centre, Wagga Wagga

- 8.30-8.55m Registration and Coffee
- 8.55-9.00am Welcome and outline of the day
Ms Toni Nugent (Industry Partnerships & Communications Manager, Graham Centre)
- 9.00-9.40am Research priorities and the sheep industry strategic plan 2015-2020
Mark Harvey-Sutton (Sheepmeat Council of Australia)
- 9.40-10am Best practice worm control for prime lamb production
Rob Woodgate (Charles Sturt University)
- 10-10.20am Using second generation annual, hard-seeded pasture legumes to 'meat' lamb production targets in the southern Australian mixed farming zone
Lucinda Watt (Charles Sturt University)
- 10.20-10.40am Panel session (all session speakers)
- 10.40-11.15am MORNING TEA
- 11.15-11.35am The cost of hitting lifetime ewe targets in scanned and un-scanned merino flocks - a simulation
Shawn McGrath (Fred Morley Centre, Charles Sturt University)
- 11.50-12.10pm Management to improve lamb survival
Susan Robertson (Charles Sturt University)
- 12.10-12.30pm Producer case study: Increasing lamb survival on-farm
Tim Westblade (Lockhart)
- 12.30-12.50pm The trouble with sub project update
Janelle Jenkins (Riverina Local Land Services)

12.50-1.10pm Panel session (all session speakers)

1.10-1.20pm Forum summary, wrap up and evaluation

Ms Toni Nugent (Industry Partnerships & Communications Manager, Graham Centre) & Professor Michael Friend (Director, Graham Centre)

1.20pm LUNCH

Supported by:

